

I am a concerned citizen who would like to express his opposition to the proposed rule changes under consideration by the FCC's Media Ownership Working Group. It is my feeling that the current proposals to relax ownership regulations are designed solely for the benefit of private for-profit interests and do not offer any benefit to the general public. Please do not make any changes to the FCC's current rules governing media ownership rules.
Thank you.